1. INTRODUCTION

This Policy has been ratified by the Board of Directors ("Board") of Tam Capital ("Company") and approved by the General Assembly of shareholders. It represents an enforceable document relating to business referral incentives.

The Policy is intended to encourage Board members, employees as well as outsiders to participate in the success of the Company by rewarding the referral of leads to the business, in particular, for an increase in the introduction of new clients and deals. More specifically, the policy covers cross-functional referrals for full-time employees of the Company to inspire them to be a part of the success of the Company as a unit. The Policy provides financial reward to all those defined as eligible in this document, who support in generating additional income for Tam Capital.

2. POLICY STATEMENT

2.1 Term and Renewal

This Policy takes effect from August 28, 2025 for a period of two (2) years, subject to the terms set out below. Any modification, termination or renewal requires ratification by the Board of Directors and approval by the General Assembly.

2.2 Eligible Leads

A qualifying referred lead may be either:

(1) A successful customer/client lead; or
(2) A successful deal/transaction lead.

A lead could be for any of the following major categories of business activities:

- Deal Arrangement: Introducing a new transaction or deal that will generate transaction fees.
- Fund Raising: Raising funds for public and private funds, or placements that will generate management/other fee.

	Business Line	Deal Arrangement	Fund Raising
1	Asset Management (Funds & Portfolios)	☐	☐
2	Investment Banking Transactions	☐	☐

2.2.1 To be considered for the referral incentive payment, the lead must be submitted using the Business Referral Form (Annexure). Any other referrals will not be eligible to be considered under this Policy.

2.2.2 A lead must not be considered under this Policy unless it represents:
1. New money inflows from new clients.
2. New money inflows from inactive clients (clients that are inactive for the 12 months prior to lead submission).
3. New money inflows from the lead despite being an active client in the past.

2.2.3 It will be Tam Capital's final discretion to consider/proceed with any referrals.

2.3 Eligible Persons

2.3.1 All Board members, regular full-time employees of Tam Capital, and outsiders are eligible under this Policy.

2.3.2 Resigning/terminated employees of the Company will not be entitled for any accrued incentives, however, exceptions may be given by the CEO.

2.3.3 Any employee working in a sales role will be eligible for incentives under this Policy, however, they will not be entitled for the annual performance bonus of the Company.

2.4 Incentive Matrix

Income Type	Product	Fee %	Incentive Payment Frequency and Duration	Basis of Calculation	Max. Cap
Subscription fee	Public & Private Funds	Up-to 50%	Once upon revenue received.	Of net subscription fee	per lead
Management fee	Public & Private Funds	Up-to 20%	Quarterly for 1 year	Of net management fee (if min fee of SR 100,000 earned)	per lead
Transaction Fee	Real Estate Funds Investment Banking	Up-to 20%	Once upon revenue received.	Of the net transaction fee (if min fee of SR 100,000 earned)	per lead

- For heavily discounted or waived subscription fees, CEO has the discretion to pay equivalent incentive from management fees income, subject to the Company generating positive returns from the same lead.

- For the eligibility of holdings for incentive, any redemptions will be treated on LIFO (Last In First Out) basis. For funds having subscription fee, incentive payment will be at CEO discretion.

- Transaction fee (Success, underwriting, structuring, debt arrangement etc.) less any additional expenses (legal, marketing, technology etc.) incurred for successfully closing an Investment Banking transaction.

- In all cases, the net fees earned by the Company should be arrived at after deducting any discounts, rebates, fees paid, etc. to generate this business.

1.5 Conditions

1.5.1 The Policy is non-contractual and its terms may be amended, replaced or withdrawn at any time by the Company at its sole discretion without notice.

1.5.2 If more than one eligible person jointly submits the lead, the referral incentives will be shared among the eligible employees after CEO approval.

1.5.3 Payment of the referral incentives will be made after the relevant quarter, subject to the maximum pay-out specified in the above table (section 3.4) as soon as administratively practicable .

1.5.4 With respect to employees, the referral incentives shall be considered as "variable pay" and not as "fixed pay". Hence the incentives will not be included in the calculation of end of service.

2.6 Special Conditions

2.6.1 All employees will be eligible under this Scheme. They may also receive incentives for their own department products (i.e., for referrals related to their own business function). The CEO will apply discretion in ensuring fairness and avoid duplication of benefit. In order to be eligible under this Policy, employees should be in active employment on the date when payment of incentive becomes due.

2.6.2 Incentives for sales team employees will trigger only upon over-achievement of annual sales targets (product wise) and the leads eligible for incentive payment and only for the over-achievement. For unique market, product, employee situations, as determined by the CEO, CEO has the authority of reducing the threshold for paying incentives below the annual sales targets.

2.7 Exceptions

2.7.1 For any new products not covered in the Policy, the CEO will decide upon the category of each product among the incentive matrix in section 3.4

2.7.2 Payments above the cap will require documented justifications, CEO's recommendation, and approval from the Board.

2.8 Compliance

2.8.1 Employees must not make any false representations at any time including but not limited to any customer, potential customer, individual, business, agent or any other prospective or actual lead either in their individual capacity or on behalf of the Company. Any abuse of or misconduct in connection with this Policy may lead to disciplinary action and ineligibility to receive incentive.

2.8.2 This Policy is designed to encourage the generation of new customer leads only, i.e. to refer any leads to those employees in the Company who are authorized to interact with such prospective customers. Employees must not engage in any sales activities or provide prospective customers with product advice whatsoever unless expressly authorized to do so.

2.8.3 Employees must not induce or influence any lead with anything of value with the intention of securing their business for the Company.

2.8.4 Any potential conflict of interest that may be created by referring a lead (e.g. if the lead is a relative or if the lead is an entity in which the Board member or employee or relative of the Board member or employee has a financial interest) must be disclosed in the Referral Form in accordance with the Company's Code of Conduct and the Chinese Walls and Managing Conflicts Of Interest Policy.

2.8.5 A third-party referring a lead / transaction shall be responsible to ensure that, to the best of its knowledge, it has no actual or potential conflict of interest in referring any lead or transaction under this Policy. The Referrer shall not refer any lead where the referral would breach any contractual, professional, or regulatory obligation to another party.

Incase a conflict of interest arises after the referral is made, the referrer shall promptly disclose in writing to the Company any potential conflict of interest that has risen. Tam Capital reserves the right to reject or withhold incentive payments for any referral deemed to involve a conflict of interest or compromise ethical standards.

The Referrer shall act in good faith and in full compliance with applicable laws, including anti-bribery and anti-fraud regulations in the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia.

3. PROCEDURES

Incentives shall be recorded, calculated, reviewed and paid at appropriate payment cycles.

The relevant department will document procedures that would include process for entering data in the incentive system, preparing the incentive for any products not available in incentive system, maintaining database on all referrals and successful/eligible persons, maintaining data on sales team targets and achievements, verifying data, income generated and release the eligible incentives. CEO shall approve this document and shall also approve all payments.
